A Mother's Thoughts

By: Carol Cichella, Rockford Illinois

Yesterday ...

*We dreamed of how our future would be.
Of times we'd share, my child and me.
Whether joy or pain, laughter or tears,
We'd stand together throughout the years.
A promise of what life should always be,
Of a child so dear, ever loving me.*

Today ...

*My heart sobs with uncontrollable grief.
I search for answers but find no relief.
The skies have darkened, no longer bright,
For my child is gone, forever from sight.
The dreams we shared can never be.
They're left to linger in my memory.*

Tomorrow ...

*My heart will push aside this cloud
That darkens my life like a heavy shroud.
Once again, I'll see dawning light
And know my child's love still burns bright.
I'll remember the moments we both shared;
I'll remember our love and how we cared.
I'll remember my child now lives in me,
And his yesterdays shall always be.*

It can be handmade or store bought and we usually ask people to provide about 250 of them. These have become a sweet gesture that people look forward to at each meal. This is also a loving way that you might want to use to share (in remembrance of) your loved one with the conference attendees.

Please contact Faye Jenkins or Marie Belmontez at pomcconference@gmail.com for more information, ideas or donations.

We are grateful to have had many special participants this year and we send our heartfelt appreciation to each for helping make it a special evening.

Opening the program, we were honored with American Legion Norwalk Post 359 as Color Guard. We want to thank them also, for allowing us to have one of our members, Richard Tapia (sons Richie and Michael), walk beside them with our POMC flag. Post 359 presented a moving and interesting Flag-Folding reading and demonstration. (May is National Military Appreciation Month. Remember our heroes, our veterans and those currently serving. Memorial Day, May 27th)

We greatly enjoyed David Franklin with a bag pipe presentation, vocalist Jen Faith Brown, the very personally meaningful and much loved Dove Release and we always smile at the sight of sweet Raisin Bagel, K-9 comfort therapy dog brought to us by Chaplain Ralph Buchhorn.

Guest Speaker Veronica Herrera CSU Fullerton also brought 16 of her students (Criminal Justice Dept.) who volunteered to help with set-up and take down. Not only are these young men & women honor students but they were pleasant, courteous, respectful and really good workers. We appreciate their assistance and wish them well in their futures. We hope too, that in sharing this evening with us, they might take away a valuable understanding of what surviving the loss of a loved one who died by violence is, and a certain special compassion for those left behind.

Our thanks and appreciation, of course, goes to Orange County District Attorney, Todd Spitzer and to Veronica Herrera, Ph.D. Cal State University, Fullerton for speaking to us. We are grateful to our own member Shirley Tapia (sons Richie II and Michael) who writes so beautifully and shared her personal thoughts and feelings with us and to our member Karissa Derhovanisian (brother "Billy") for speaking of her deep loss.

We thank Chaplain Brad Stetson for providing us the Invocation, the Closing Thoughts and for his caring friendship and support of our Chapter. Thank you to our Chapter Leader Debra Dizon Hernandez (son Jonathan), Glen Williams (niece Quiana) and Faye and Roy Jenkins (daughter Quiana & son-in-law Jan) for your participation in the program.

"Thank You!" to the entire Board of the Greater Orange County Chapter for all you do, all the time, for all of us.

In case you are wondering....
