MISSION STATEMENT

POMC® makes the difference through ongoing emotional support, education, prevention, advocacy, and awareness.

VISION STATEMENT

To provide support and assistance to all survivors of homicide victims while working to create a world free of murder.

MEMBERSHIP

Membership is open to those who have been cruelly bereaved by the murder of a loved one. Professionals who are in frequent contact with grieving families are also welcome to join. This year we missed many meeting and gatherings due to COVID-2019. Although, we do not know what this year holds as far as gatherings go, I want to remind us that we have each-other. So, I thank you for your love and support as we approach this New Year.

Each year we look around, and many people seem excited for the new year, and we even hear their new year resolutions. Our resolutions seem to be the same every year, "I hope I just make it through the year." We can make it through this New Year. We can go into this year doing, being, and becoming all that we need to.

So, as we ring in this New Year, we will light a candle for our loved ones. Last but not least, remember you can include your loved one in your new year by planting a memorial garden in memory of them.

WEMURY GARDEN

Your life was a blessing; your memory is a treasure.

Whisper "I Love You " to a butterfly and it will fly to Heaven to deliver your message

Grief is like the ocean, it comes in waves ebbing and flowing. Sometimes the water is calm, and sometimes it is overwhelming. All we can do is learn to swim.

Social Justice Sewing Academy

The Social Justice Sewing Academy (SJSA), a non-profit organization based in Northern California, is a volunteer-lead organization that aims to use art as a form of activism. In this, our most recent project is the Quilts of Remembrance project where volunteers create free, custom quilts for families that have lost loved ones to violence. We create the quilts as a means of sending our condolences and providing a source of comfort to the families. For families that are interested in a quilt, they would have a brief conversation with Lauren Black, the Executive Director of the organization to discuss their loved one's hobbies/interests/favorite colors and any symbols that may represent their loved one that the family would like to have included. If families are willing and comfortable, we typically ask families to send at least one item of clothing to be included in the quilt (shirts, jeans, jerseys, hoodies, etc.) and/or photos of their loved one by themselves or with members of the family. Once the photos and/or clothing are received, a volunteer in our organization is assigned the quilt and it takes about 2-3 months to be shipped back to the family. Families that are interested can email me directly.

CRAZY LEGS PRODUCTIONS

We as a company do a lot of work for the Investigation Discovery channel and in that realm, we often have shows that showcase victim's stories. A lot of episodes of our shows find us featuring victim's families of harrowing crimes and ordeals. We are proud to be able to provide them with the platform to share the stories of their loved ones. One of our hopes with our episodes is that by sharing these stories, we may be able to spread public awareness about the unspeakable violence that affects many families day to day, including those who are affiliated with your group, Parents of Murdered Children. We also hope that viewers out there who can relate may take inspiration from the stories we feature. Please feel free to call me at the number below at any time, I'm happy to elaborate further and answer any questions.

Information (Cont'd)

Paul Smith and I are retired law enforcement officers and were for a time, detectives together in California. We write cop books now. We are currently working on a project with Investigation Discovery investigationdiscovery.com (dedicated to true crime documentaries) that could get cold cases exposure via a new TV network series. We're looking to identify cases that meet the following specific criteria:

- Unsolved homicide
- Victim is female
- Victim was an informant (or her killer(s) thought she was an informant)

If you have such a case(s), and you think new witnesses or information could surface as a result of TV network exposure to certain aspects of the case, we would like to discuss this with you and add your case to our 'potentials' file. Paul and I would very much like to initiate discussions on how we might assist. Please do not hesitate to reach out to us at any time at the following:

Candlelight Vigil and Names Dedication (April 2021)

In 1988, members of the Orange County Chapter of Parents Of Murdered Children (POMC) set out to create a special place to honor and remember our Loved Ones lost to violent crimes. After extraordinary efforts by dedicated members, and assistance from Mothers Against Drunk Drivers (MADD), it took four years to create the permanent monument to our loved ones. This monument is the first of its kind to be built on the west coast. In 1992, the permanent monument was unveiled and dedicated. Money for the monument was raised through grass roots efforts: candy sales, car shows, bake sales, garage sales, and private donations. No professional fundraiser solicited a dime for this memorial; it was a work of LOVE by families wanting to heal. In 2005, the care of the monument was given to the new Greater Orange County Chapter of POMC. The five foot tall by three foot wide white marble monument bears the inscription:

Dedicated to Those Who Lost Their Lives In Violent Crimes

Above the inscription is a recessed oval panel with a carved pink marble "eternal" flame. A partially opened rosebud is carved into the area below. On the ground level, adjacent to either side of the monument, are black granite markers bearing the names of the victims - our Loved Ones - our daughters and sons, sisters and brothers, mothers and fathers, nieces and nephews, family and friends. Two white marble benches, roses, shrubs and flowerbeds ensure a peaceful place to sit, relax and fondly remember. Please see the Names Dedication Form that follows. It must be submitted before February 28, 2019 for this year's ceremony. We look forward to sharing this event with you; our loved ones will never be forgotten.
